

I am concerned that Sinclair is forcing local stations to adopt their programming.

This is of particular concern when local stations are being forced to air a one sided political movie. If they were presenting several politically charged segment from opposing sides, that would at least show some balance.

I will be very interested in seeing that this issue is raised during licensure proceedings when Sinclair is appraised for operating in the best interest of public education.